Four small changes were made in version 1.1:

ATOPID 1100: U.K. and Spain have consultation obligations in the first period of the alliance, and U.K., Spain, and Portugal have consultation obligations in the second period of the alliance. This affects the member level data only.

ATOPID 1110: Consultation obligations added for all members. This affects both the member level and the alliance level data.

ATOPID 2130: Germany does not have a defensive obligation. This affects the member level data only.

ATOPID 2130: The termination date for phase two of the alliance is April 24, 1937. The termination date was entered incorrectly in the alliance level data version 1.0 and has been corrected in version 1.1.

Only the member level and alliance level data were released in version 1.0. Version 1.1 is the first publicly available version of the dyad year, directed dyad year, and state year versions of the dataset.
